Carleton, Blazers clash as Knights seek title outright with one more win

Carleton clinched at least a tie for the MIAC regular season title with Saturday’s victory over the University of St. Thomas. The title is the first for the Knights, who won the MIAC Playoff title in each of the last two seasons. The win, coupled with St. Benedict’s win over Gustavus Adolphus College, assured the Knights of a top two seed in the upcoming MIAC Playoffs. The Knights can secure the MIAC title outright and the top seed in the MIAC Playoffs with one win in their final two games.

The match-up with St. Benedict marks the first time that the two schools have met as top 10 national teams. Carleton has beaten the Blazers twice when St. Benedict has been ranked second in the nation (1990-00, 2002-03).

Hot first half gives Knights sweep of St. Thomas

Megan Vig scored 16 points, copping all four of her 3-point attempts, as Carleton shot 60.7 percent from the field in the first half in beating the University of St. Thomas, 74-65.

Linnea Engel added 14 points, six rebounds and four steals for the Knights, who swept the season series from the Tommies for the first time in school history. Cara Jones added 10 points, four rebounds and four assists.

The Tommies raced to an early 10-6 lead before the Knights finally heated up, connecting on nine consecutive shots to stretch the lead to 27-15. The Knights cashed in on four trifectas during the run and stretched the lead to 45-29 at the half. The Tommies opened the second half by scoring the first seven points and pulled within eight, 46-38, Carleton answered with a Katie Freeman jumper and a Vig triple. The Knights built the lead back to 18 before the Tommies made a final run to close the gap to nine at the final horn.

Carleton closes out regular season by hosting 11th-ranked Gusties

Carleton will honor its four seniors when they host No. 11 Gustavus Adolphus College on Saturday, Feb. 22 at 3 p.m. The game, the regular season home finale, can be heard on KQRS 95.5 FM and via Webcast on Knights Online. Carleton defeated Gustavus on Jan. 20, 61-51.

St. Benedict series record

The Blazers lead the all-time series 35-8, but Carleton has won five of the last nine meetings over the last four seasons. Home court advantage has been anything but, with the home team owning only a 5-4 record over the last nine meetings.

In the first meeting on Jan. 18, Megan Vig scored a career-high 21 points and grabbed eight rebounds as Carleton outlasted St. Benedict, 76-75, in front of 1,200 fans at West Gym. Linnea Engel added 15 points on 5-of-5 shooting from the field and free throw line and added eight rebounds for Carleton. Karissa Kramer added 11 points, including a key basket with 42 seconds left that gave Carleton a 76-71 lead. Danni Hannon paced St. Benedict with 19 points, Michelle Barlau tallied 16 points and Kim Johnson added 13 points and 10 rebounds for the Blazers. It marked the first time that St. Benedict has dropped two consecutive MIAC games in the 17-year tenure of head coach Mike Durbin.

the University of Wisconsin, Eau Claire and Carleton. St. Benedict, after its win over Gustavus, University remained first in the poll for the 10th straight week, followed by Hope, Hardin-Simmons, averaging 17.4 points per game, 3.2 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 2.7 steals per game. Even more season for the first time since the 2000-01 season. Barlau is putting together a MVP-type season, Barlau scored 24 points and Danni Hannon added 22 as the Blazers beat the Gusties in the regular reeled off nine consecutive victories, including a 69-54 triumph of Gustavus on Saturday. Michelle Barlau added eight points, six re bounds and 5. assists in only 23 minutes to pull away for the win. Kim Johnson paced the Blazers with a career-high 26 points. Mia Peterson was also in double figures with 16 points and Dannni Hannon added 11 points, all in the second half. Michelle Barlau added eight points, six rebounds and five assists in only 23 minutes of action, as she sat on the bench for most of the first half with two fouls. Five Carleton players fouled out of the game. The Blazers owned a 44-33 edge on the glass. Carleton was whistled for 29 fouls compared to just 18 for St. Benedict. In the season’s second meeting at Claire Lynch, Karissa Kramer scored 16 points, 14 in the second half, and Beth Freeman added a career-high 14 points on six of seven shooting as Carleton beat St. Benedict, 79-63, for its second consecutive MIAC Playoff title. The Knights shot 53 percent (32 of 61) for the game and 64 percent (18 of 28) in the second half, outscoring the Blazers 45-28 in the final 20 minutes. Bethany Koehler ’02 added 15 points, including a trio of three-point baskets. Michelle Barlau paced the Blazers with 16 points. Dannni Hannon added 14 points while Kim Johnson tallied 10 points and nine rebounds.

Knights continue unbeaten streak
The Knights are one of only four unbeaten teams remaining in Division III, with Hope College (Mich.), Washington University (Mo.) and Hardin-Simmons University (Texas) being the other three. Carleton’s current 23-game winning streak is a school record.

In the polls
The Knights are ranked fifth in the D3Hoops.com top 25 for the fourth straight week. Washington University remained first in the poll for the 10th straight week, followed by Hope, Hardin-Simmons, the University of Wisconsin, Eau Claire and Carleton. St. Benedict, after its win over Gustavus, moved up two spots to sixth while the Gusties dropped four slots to 11th. The results of the poll are through games of Feb. 16. Carleton has now been ranked a school-record 18 consecutive weeks.

In last week’s west region poll Carleton is the top-ranked team. The regional poll and the ESPN/USA Today/WBCA coaches’ poll will be released later today (region) and tomorrow (WBCA). [Please see page five for full rankings.]

Scouting St. Benedict
After losing consecutive MIAC games for the first time in the Mike Durbin era, the Blazers have reeled off nine consecutive victories, including a 69-54 triumph of Gustavus on Saturday. Michelle Barlau scored 24 points and Dannni Hannon added 22 as the Blazers beat the Gusties in the regular season for the first time since the 2000-01 season. Barlau is putting together a MVP-type season, averaging 17.4 points per game, 3.2 rebounds, 3.2 assists and 2.7 steals per game. Even more amazing is the fact that the senior perimeter player is shooting 55.6 percent from the floor and 44.3 percent from 3-point range. Not to be outdone, senior Hannon is averaging 14.9 points, 4.6 rebounds, and 3.4 assists per game. She’s shooting 55.8 percent from the floor and 40.3 percent from beyond the arc. Sophomore post Kim Johnson is the MIAC’s leading shot blocker with 35 rejections while averaging nearly nine points and seven boards per contest. Junior wings Ashley Brown (9.8 ppg) and Leah Laurich (8.4 ppg) gives the Blazers five proven scorers in the starting line-up. St. Benedict has made a living at the free throw line, averaging more than 20 attempts per game. Their 3-point attack ranks in the NCAA’s top 10, both in terms of percentage (39.7%) and 3-pointers made per game (7.1/g).
Engel theft prowess reached new heights
Linnea Engel passed the 50-steal mark for the third straight season, making her the first Carleton player to record 50 or more steals in each of her first three seasons. She is currently alone in second place on Carleton’s all-time steal list with 164 steals.

Senior superiority
Carleton four seniors - Karissa Kramer, Cara Jones, Angie Grabowski and Karen Fricke - own an 84-21 mark in their four seasons at Carleton, including a 69-16 mark in MIAC play. They are, by far, the most successful class in Carleton history.

Long-range marksmanship
Megan Vig connected on all four of her 3-point attempts on Saturday, tying the Carleton record for best perfect shooting game from three-point range. Vig leads the team with a 42.6 3-points shooting percentage and 26 long-range shots. She ranks fifth in the MIAC in 3-point accuracy. Vig is Carleton’s top scorer in MIAC play, ranking 16th at 10.8 points per game. Her 4.8 boards a game ranks her 20th in the MIAC.

Jottings
The Knights posted their seventh 40+ first-half on Saturday, scoring 45 points. Their season-high for a first-half score is 48 against Augsburg on Jan. 25. The Knights have scored 40 or more points in a half 13 different times this year, with a season-high of 52 against Concordia-Moorhead on Dec. 14.
Carleton’s nine-point margin of victory on Saturday snapped a nine-game streak of winning by 10 points or more... Carleton’s 20 MIAC wins sets a new school record, breaking the previous record of 18 set by the 2001-02 and 2000-01 teams... St. Thomas shot 56.9 percent from the field on Saturday, marking only the second time this season that a Carleton opponent has shot 50 percent or better... Carleton’s seven 3-pointers on Saturday was a team conference season high... Carleton had a season-high five players score in double figures in last Saturday’s win over Concordia-Moorhead. The previous high was four, also against Concordia back on Dec. 14... The Knights have held the opposition to under 40 percent shooting in 16 of its 22 games... MIAC opponents are shooting only 36.7 percent from the floor and scoring only 53.8 points per game... Carleton leads the MIAC in... The Knights rank second in the MIAC in field goal percentage defense (36.8%) scoring margin (+20.0) free throw percentage (69.5%), field goal percentage (46.8%), scoring offense (73.8 ppg), scoring defense (53.8 ppg allowed), turnover margin (+4.9), three-point field goal percentage defense (28.4%), rebounding margin (+7.4) and assists (16.5 apg)... Carleton is 25th in the nation in scoring offense (74.7 ppg), 11th in scoring margin (+19.8) and eighth in field goal percentage (46.7%).

Quick hits
Karissa Kramer surpassed the 800-point mark for her career with 10 points in Saturday’s win over Concordia-Moorhead. She’s 14 points away from cracking Carleton’s all-time top 10 scoring list. Her 554 career rebounds ranks her ninth all-time and 822 career points ranks 11th... Cara Jones is six assists away from reaching 200 for her career. Only five other players have reached the mark in Carleton history... Angie Grabowski became the 12th player in Carleton history to reach 800 points on Wednesday, and enters the St. Benedict game at 815. She ranks 12th on Carleton’s career scoring list, behind teammate Kramer... Kramer has finally accumulated enough games to rank among the MIAC leaders. Her 10.3 points per game places her 21st and her 54.0 field goal percentage slots her seventh in the MIAC rankings... Linnea Engel ranks 24th in scoring (9.4 ppg), eighth in field goal accuracy (52.3%), 12th in free throw percentage (72.0%) and fourth in steals (2.3 spg)... Beth Freeman set a new career high with five assists against Concordia. Her 12 points snapped a 13 game streak of not scoring in double figures... Megan Vig and Beth Freeman are tied as Carleton’s top rebounder in MIAC play, ranking 19th with 4.9 collections each per game. Although the Knights have only one player ranked among the top 20 rebounders, they’re the second-best rebounding team in the conference behind St. Thomas... After scoring in double figures only once in Carleton’s first 14 games, Karen Fricke has notched four double-figure scoring games in the Knights’ last nine games... Vig’s 16 points snapped a four-game streak without scoring in double figures for the first-year sensation. She averaged only 4.8 ppg during that stretch. In the four games involving teams that have clinched an MIAC Playoff spot (St. Thomas, St. Benedict and Gustavus), Vig is scoring 15.0 points per game.
