Engel Reaches 500 Rebounds, Jumps into All-Time Top Ten In Points, Assists

With eight-rebound performance against Augsburg, senior Linnea Engel became only the 11th player in Carleton history to surpass 500 rebounds for a career. She entered the game seven boards shy of 500, and with her rebound with 17:55 left in the second half game her 500 for her career. Her current total of 509 career rebounds ranks her 11th best all-time at Carleton.

First-Place Knights to Face rival Oles for Presidents Cup

Carleton, which defeated St. Catherine on Wednesday, will host rival St. Olaf in the fifth game of their seven game homestand. The victory over the Wildcats, coupled with Concordia-Moorhead’s one-point overtime victory over St. Benedict, means that Carleton is built in a tie for first place in the MIAC with the Blazers. Both teams have a 13-1 conference record.

The game between Carleton and St. Olaf is this year’s designated Presidents Cup contest. The travelling trophy, introduced into the rivalry three years ago, goes to the team that wins the selected game that season. The teams rotate the designated game and this year is Carleton’s turn to host the Presidents Cup game.

Carleton is ranked eighth in the latest ESPN/USA Today/WBCA coaches poll and 10th by D3Hoops.com. St. Olaf is unranked.

Megan Vig scored 19 points on 7-for-11 shooting and Beth Freeman added 13 points and nine rebounds as Carleton held off St. Catherine, 70-60.

The win allowed Carleton to move into a first-place tie with the College of St. Benedict in the MIAC standings, as the Blazers lost in overtime at Concordia College, Moorhead, 77-76.

The Knights used an 18-4 first-half run to stretch their lead to double figures midway through the half. The Knights led by as many as 15 points in the stanza before settling for a 41-31 halftime lead.

The Wildcats opened the second half on a quick 8-2 spurt, pulling within four. Carleton responded, quickly pushing the lead back to nine points. The Wildcats wouldn’t die, however, using a quick 8-2 spurt to get within 58-56 with 6:26 left. From that point, however, Carleton was dominant, scoring the next eight points to put the game out of reach. Kristi Colbenson tallied 10 points and eight rebounds for Carleton. Carleton shot only 40 percent (27-for-68) from the floor but held the Wildcats to a similar 40 percent clip (26-for-65). The Knights forced 22 turnovers by St. Catherine and held a 23-13 edge in points off turnovers.

Engel Reaches 500 Rebounds, Jumps into All-Time Top Ten In Points, Assists

With eight-rebound performance against Augsburg, senior Linnea Engel became only the 11th player in Carleton history to surpass 500 rebounds for a career. She entered the game seven boards shy of 500, and with her rebound with 17:55 left in the second half game her 500 for her career. Her current total of 509 career rebounds ranks her 11th best all-time at Carleton.

In Carleton’s Jan. 14 victory over St. Thomas, Engel moved into the top ten all-time in scoring in Carleton history. She scored 12 points in the game, which let her pass Karissa Kramer ‘03 to become the 10th best scorer in Carleton history. Engel currently has 905 points for her career, and with eight games remaining in the regular season plus the MIAC playoffs and possibly the NCAA playoffs, she has a reasonable chance to end the season as only the seventh player in Carleton history to score 1,000 points in her career. In Saturday’s victory over Augsburg, Engel also recorded six assists, which let her jump over Megan Wilhelm ’96 into eighth on the all-time assists list. She currently has 183 career assists, 12 behind Angie Grabowski '03 for seventh all-time. Earlier this season, Engel became the all-time steals leader in Carleton history. She also ranks in the all-time top ten at Carleton in blocks (sixth), free throws made (ninth), field goals made (ninth), and field goal percentage (seventh).

St. Olaf Series

Carleton currently trails in the series, 38-16. St. Olaf dominated Carleton in the series prior to 2000, as they won 37 of the first 45 games involving the two rivals. After swapping games in the 1999-2000 season, Carleton has defeated the Oles eight consecutive times, including once in the 2002 MIAC playoffs. The Knights, however, still have a long way to go to match St. Olaf's 19 game win streak from 1976-87.

D3Hoops.com ranking from 17th to 10th. It marks the second consecutive season that Carleton has been ranked in either or both polls a school-record 28 consecutive times.

About St. Olaf

Head Coach Pat Buresh returned two starters from last year's team but a key injury forced her to rely on a mostly inexperienced line-up for most of the MIAC slate.

The Oles have been competitive due in large part to one of the conference's most unheralded players, Jill Johnson. The senior post is averaging 15.3 points and 7.0 rebounds per game, ranking her eighth and seventh, respectively, in the MIAC.

After losing senior co-captain and point guard Kelly Sweeney to injury, Buresh has been forced to start a first-year player, a sophomore, and a junior in the backcourt. The Oles sorely miss Sweeney's scoring and rebounding, but it was her 4.1 assists per game and on-court leadership that the Oles are currently lacking. The best scorer of the guards is first-year player Holly Grimsrud, who is averaging 9.2 points per game. Junior Molly Simon is right behind her at 8.4 points per game. Sophomore Natalie Rigelman give the Oles a scorer off the bench.

This is Coach Buresh's 15th year at St. Olaf. She has a 172-216 record as coach of the Oles.

Earlier this season - Carleton 76, St. Olaf 69

Megan Vig tallied 18 points and nine rebounds and Cassie Hammond added a career-best 14 points as Carleton held off a late St. Olaf run to beat the Oles, 76-69, on Dec. 10, 2003, at Skoglund Center.

Carleton broke to a 40-30 halftime lead and opened the second half on a 18-6 spurt to lead 58-36 on a Kristi Colbenson fast-break layup. The Knights still lead by 20, 63-43, with 12:10 remaining before the Oles made their run.

Colbenson also was in double figures for the Knights with 13 points and added five boards. Kari Christianson added 11 points, eight in the first half, and canned a big three-pointer late in the game.

Rigelman led the Oles with 14 points; Molly Simon added 11 and Kelly Sweeney and Jill Johnson added 10 points each.

Last Season at Carleton - Carleton 78, St. Olaf 51

Megan Vig scored 14 points and grabbed a nine rebounds as Carleton opened the second half with a 26-6 run to race past St. Olaf, 78-51. Karissa Kramer '03 added 12 points and five rebounds for Carleton. Christine Schwichtenberg paced St. Olaf with 15 points.

In the polls

Carleton moved up seven places to eighth following their blowout wins over Bethel and Augsburg in this week's USA Today/ESPN/WBCA top 25 coaches' poll. The Knights also moved up seven spots in this week's D3Hoops.com ranking from 17th to 10th. It marks the second consecutive season that Carleton has been ranked in the nation's top 10 at some point. Last year, the Knights spent nine total weeks in the top 10, rising as high as number five in the D3Hoops.com poll, a school record.

Carleton has now been ranked in either or both polls a school-record 28 consecutive times.

Tammy Metcalf-Filzen

Tammy Metcalf-Filzen moves into her seventh season as head coach at Carleton. In only six seasons she has turned the program into a conference contender, leading them to three consecutive MIAC Playoff titles, 20-win seasons, and NCAA Tournament bids in 2000-01, 2001-02, and 2002-03. In 2002-03 she was named the MIAC coach of the year and WBCA Region Coach of the Year, leading the Knights to a school-record 25 victories. She earned the same honors in 2000-01. She previously served as head coach at St. Olaf and as an assistant at Temple and Minnesota. She is Carleton's all-time winningest coach.

Metcalf-Filzen has presided over one of the most remarkable turnarounds in all of NCAA Division III women's basketball. When she took over prior to the 1997-98 season, the Knights had a program winning percentage of .323. Since Metcalf-Filzen assumed the head coaching position, the program has winning percentage of .688 and has posted its first 20-win seasons. Metcalf-Filzen has led Carleton to a 60-9 record over the last three seasons and 82-14 over the last four.

Carleton has improved its record in each of Metcalf-Filzen's first six seasons and her .688 winning percentage is the best in school history. A 1983 St. Olaf graduate, Metcalf-Filzen earned her M.S. from the University of Minnesota in 1987. She won four varsity letters as a point guard for the Oles, twice earned All-MIAC honors, led the NCAA Division III in free-throw percentage in 1982-83, and was inducted into the St. Olaf Hall of Fame in 1999 and the Northfield Hall of Fame in 1992.

Metcalf-Filzen owns a 152-77 record in nine seasons overall and 126-51 in seven seasons at Carleton.
