Scouting St. John’s

The Johnnies are in the MIAC playoffs for the fourth straight season, despite losing seven of their final eleven games. St. John’s needs to win the conference tournament to avoid finishing with a losing record for the first time since the 1997-98 season. This season the Johnnies have been led by senior guard Kevin Buth, who leads the MIAC in scoring with an average of 21.7 points per game. Buth is also St. John’s best three point shooter at 36.6 percent. Additionally, he pulls down 4.5 rebounds per game and averages 2.3 assists per game. Post player Shawn McGuire grabs 5.6 rebounds per game and scores 11.2 points per game. McGuire is the only other Johnnie to average more than 5.6 rebounds per game, the Johnnies have a +2.6 rebounding margin. But St. John’s has a -1.5 turnover margin and shoots only 32.6 percent from behind the arc. As a result, the Johnnies are third-to-last in the conference in scoring offense at 68.3 points per game.

He pulls down 7.3 rebounds per game, which is good for third in the MIAC, while contributing 8.3 points per game. Big man Andrew Sherburne pulls down 5.1 rebounds per game and scores 6.6 points per game. Despite having no player average more than 5.6 rebounds per game, the Johnnies have a +2.6 rebounding margin. But St. John’s has a -1.5 turnover margin and shoots only 32.6 percent from behind the arc. As a result, the Johnnies are third-to-last in the conference in scoring offense at 68.3 points per game.
